

Jeanne Lind Herberger Fellowship in Communication:
Call for Applications

Criteria

Applicants for the Herberger Fellowship in Communication must be graduate students in good standing in the Hugh Downs School of Human Communication who will be enrolled in the graduate program full time during the 2020-2021 academic year.

Applicants also must be engaged in studying and/or researching topics related to conflict transformation or work/life (as evidenced by courses taken, papers written, papers presented at conferences, and/or manuscripts submitted for publication).

Application

Applicants should submit a one-page statement discussing how their work has the potential to transform understanding and/or practice in the areas of conflict transformation and/or the intersection of work and life as well as a copy of their current vitae.

Deadline

Materials should be submitted to Dr. Sarah Tracy at sarah.tracy@asu.edu by 5pm, Friday, April 10, 2020.